ACCREDITATION MATTERS

Having demonstrated that it has met the standards of business education that promote teaching excellence, DeVry University's Bachelor of Science in Accounting program has achieved specialized accounting accreditation from the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP).

BECKER

DeVry's bachelor's degree programs in Accounting include elements of Becker Professional Education's industry-leading CPA Exam prep built right in to the coursework, so you'll gain exposure to today's most relevant accounting principles.<sup>1</sup>

ACCELERATE AT YOUR PACE

Choose the schedule that best fits your goals and commitments. You can earn your Bachelor's Degree in as little as 2 years 8 months.

Or, follow a normal schedule and complete your program in 4 years.

<sup>1</sup>Per 12-month period, assumes completion of 3 semesters, enrollment in 14-16 credit hours per semester and continuous, full-time year-round enrollment with no breaks.

<sup>2</sup>Per 12-month period, assumes completion of 2 semesters and full-time enrollment in 14-16 credit hours per semester.

<sup>1</sup> Most State boards of accountancy require 150 credit hours of post-secondary education in order to sit for the CPA exam. As this program is less than 150 credit hours, the program alone does not meet the minimum coursework requirements to sit for the CPA exam. Students interested in sitting for the CPA exam should check their state's requirements. Credits and degrees earned from this institution do not automatically qualify the holder to participate in professional licensing exams to practice certain professions. Persons interested in practicing a regulated profession must contact the appropriate state regulatory agency for their field of interest. DeVry is not able to recommend graduates for professional licensure in any state. New York Students should contact the NYSED Office of Professions Regarding professional Licensure.
