ABOUT THIS PROGRAM
Keller’s Human Resource Management graduate certificate helps students enhance their abilities in key areas of human resources such as team building, employment law, human capital management and managing human dynamics.

The certificate can be earned as a standalone credential, credits from which may be transferrable to the Human Resource Management concentration in the Business Administration and Human Resource Management master's degree programs.

KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS
EMPLOYMENT LAW — Analyze and demonstrate an ability to implement and oversee middle to senior level Human Resource Management (HRM) functions, including change management, employment regulatory concerns and employee legal matters.

STRATEGIC HR MANAGEMENT — Synthesize the role of HR management and contribute to the progression and achievement of an organization's strategic plan through partnership.

PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT — Create metrics to analyze organizational performance and inform improvement initiatives, and strategically design objectives resulting in the efficient use of technology, human capital, organizational culture, leadership, workforce planning and talent management.
