The figures displayed represent the minimum credit hours required for graduation. Additional coursework may be necessary to complete program requirements. For the ABUS program, every course counts towards the Bachelor’s in Technical Management except for the following specializations: Information Technology, Health Information Management and Criminal Justice. At the time of application to the next credential level, an evaluation of qualifying transfer credit will occur and the most beneficial outcome will be applied.

\(^1\) The ABUS-Healthcare Business track is not embedded in the bachelor’s degree in technical management with health information management specialty. Students may pursue other technical management specializations, such as health services management. For the associate in Business, healthcare business specialization, every course counts towards the Bachelor of Science in Technical Management-General Option.
