

Business Administration (Fast Track)

About this program

Our DeVry-Keller Fast Track Master in Business Administration program features a learning format that lets you progress at your pace. Move quickly through topics you know and spend more time on new concepts as you build skills in leadership, strategic decision-making, and business management. You'll build competencies in areas such as organizational leadership, finance, marketing, operations, and data-informed decision-making through practical learning experiences.

How Fast Track works

Fast Track gives you flexibility without leaving you on your own. Start with 2 courses and move through them topic by topic, completing learning activities on your time frame. You can go quickly through topics you already understand and spend more time learning new skills. Once you've shown you understand the course material by passing an assessment, you can advance to your next class.

Modality	100% online
Schedule & pace	Self-paced with the ability to move forward as you master required skills
Start dates	16-week subscription periods start the first Monday of each month
Pricing	Flat fee per subscription period and no limit on the number of courses you can complete
Faculty and peer engagement	Primarily independent with instructor feedback, optional live classes, and AI learning support

Support at every step

With Fast Track, you'll get the flexibility to study on your schedule while still learning directly from our expert faculty. Join live lessons led by your instructors – or catch the replays when it works for your schedule. Talk to your faculty during office hours, get support from your dedicated advisor, and engage with your instructors and peers directly on interactive message boards to gain deeper context and insights into your study topics.
