

Your 2017-2018 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) has been selected for the federal verification process. You must complete and submit this form to Student Central. Student Central will compare information from your FAFSA with information on this form and on other documentation you may be required to submit. Student Central may make electronic corrections to your application as a result of the verification process, which may result in changes to your financial aid awards.

The original copy of this completed form, with your original signature, must be provided to DeVry University or its Keller Graduate School of Management by either presenting this documentation in person at a DeVry University location or by mailing the documentation to DeVry University Student Finance Operations.

If submitting in person – Please schedule an appointment with a Student Central staff member at your local campus. Section C of this form must be signed in the presence of, and presented to, an authorized DeVry University Student Central staff member. Your identity will need to be verified at that time by presenting a valid government-issued photo identification, such as, but not limited to, a driver’s license, other state-issued identification, or passport.

If submitting by mail – Section D of this form must be signed in the presence of, and notarized by, a notary public. Your identity will need to be verified at that time by presenting a valid government-issued photo identification, such as, but not limited to, a driver’s license, other state-issued identification, or passport. A copy of the piece of identification presented to the notary public to complete Section D will need to be listed in Section B and placed in Section E of this form. Once completed, please mail the form to:
