

Bachelor's Degree Program MANAGEMENT

Specialization: Sales and Marketing

ABOUT THIS DEGREE PROGRAM

The bachelor's degree in Management at DeVry University can help you develop the management skills needed to work in many business areas and industries, such as accounting, project management, entrepreneurship, marketing, and human resources. If you're currently employed, this can be a great way to further develop your management skills.

Our Management degree program is designed to prepare students to meet the challenges of a high-tech, global marketplace by bringing the real world into the classroom. Through experiential projects, you can develop the skills and business acumen needed in today's business world.

This program is designed to accommodate students with a wide range of experiences, including those with little or no prior college education or work experience. If you have prior work or educational experience, you may also want to consider our Technical Management degree program which is available with many of the same specializations.

ABOUT THIS SPECIALIZATION

DeVry University's bachelor's degree program in Management helps prepare you for the workplace with a solid business foundation. Our specialization in Sales and Marketing can further focus your studies.

The field of sales and marketing is driven by understanding consumers and their buying motivation and behavior. Marketing and sales professionals use this insight to develop pricing and promotions for products and services that resonate and motivate the consumer to purchase.

Sales and marketing professionals utilize a variety of tools to help them market and sell products and services. Marketers may utilize market research to collect, analyze and interpret information about the consumer. Sales people working in a territory, with the customer, can also help gather important information to better market and sell products and services. Advertising and public relations can be used to expand the impact and reach of sales and marketing professionals to a larger audience.

Our curriculum will explore some of the common tasks performed in sales and marketing including researching consumer behaviors, creating promotions, developing advertising campaigns and tracking purchase behavior.
