Institutional Accreditation

DeVry University is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission (HLC), www.hlcommission.org. The University’s Keller Graduate School of Management is included in this accreditation.

The HLC is a regional agency that accredits U.S. colleges and universities at the institutional level; is recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation; and accredits approximately one-third of U.S. regionally accredited public and private institutions. Accreditation provides assurance to the public and to prospective students that standards of quality have been met.

DeVry University is a member of the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), a national advocate and institutional voice for self-regulation of academic quality through accreditation. CHEA, an association of 3,000 degree-granting colleges and universities, recognizes 60 institutional and programmatic accrediting organizations.

Programmatic Accreditation and Recognition

ACBSP

The following DeVry University programs have achieved voluntary accreditation from the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP), www.acbsp.org, demonstrating that they have met standards of business education that promote teaching excellence:

- Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
- Bachelor of Science in Technical Management

The ACBSP has also granted specialized accounting accreditation to the following established DeVry University degree programs: Bachelor of Science in Accounting, Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a specialization in accounting; Bachelor of Science in Technical Management with a specialization in accounting.

PMI

DeVry University's Business Administration program, when completed with a project management major/concentration, is accredited by the Project Management Institute (PMI)'s Global Accreditation Center, as is the Technical Management program, when completed with a project management technical specialty. More information on this accreditation is available via www.pmi.org.

SHRM

The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) has acknowledged that the following programs fully align with SHRM's HR Curriculum Guidebook and Templates: Business Administration, with human resource management major/concentration; Management, with human resource management concentration; Technical Management, with human resource management technical specialty. More information on SHRM is available at www.shrm.org.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit acceptance is at the discretion of the receiving institution.

To facilitate ease of transferring credits to DeVry, the University maintains articulation agreements with many colleges and universities, as well as with entities such as the military. Applicable course equivalencies resulting from these agreements are reflected on students' transfer credit evaluations. Information on agreements maintained by DeVry is available at <https://www.devry.edu/admissions/transfer-students/community-college-transfers.html> and by contacting ArticulationInfo@devry.edu.

Average Time to Complete

The average time that a graduate of a program from 2016 – 2017 took to complete a program by award level is found in the chart below:

Award Level	Average time to complete in months
Undergraduate Certificate	15
Associate Degree	35
Bachelor's Degree	46
Graduate Certificate	19
Master's Degree	34

Footnotes:

¹ For matriculated students at current tuition rates, credit hours shown and full-time attendance; includes $30 application fee, nonrefundable student services charge, per-course course resource fee, and average estimated textbook and equipment expense.

² The number of months that the program is designed to be completed in. Some students may complete in a longer time, others may complete in less time, and some students may not complete the program at all.

³ The average time to complete the program of online students that completed the program. This is measured from the time of a student's first enrollment date until graduation.

⁴ The percentage of all new full-time students including transfer students from the Fall 2011 cohort who completed the program within 150% of the program length.

⁵ The median cumulative amount of debt for an entering cohort of Title IV students who graduated within program length. Debt includes Title IV loans, private loans and institutional debt.

⁶ The amount the typical graduate may expect to pay annually given the median total debt amount, a 4.45% interest rate, and a 10 year repayment period.

⁷ The Fiscal Year 2013 (most recent) cohort default rate as provided by the U.S. Department of Education.

⁸Self-reported by online students who graduated from 9/1/2016 through 8/31/2017. The job placement rates are calculated by dividing “total graduates employed in-field” by “total graduates available for employment” as further defined below.

“Total Graduates Employed In-Field” means all students included in “total graduates available for employment” who had existing in-field employment or found new in-field employment within six months of graduation and includes both those that were actively assisted in obtaining their job by the school, and those that were not.

“New Employment” is defined as employment obtained no earlier than 6 months prior to graduation.

“Existing Employment” is defined as employment that existed at the time of enrollment or was obtained more than 6 months prior to graduation.

“Total Graduates Available for Employment” means all online students who graduated between 9/1/2016 and 8/31/2017 excluding those who entered another postsecondary education program or the military full-time, were incarcerated, or died.

⁹ Median calendar year 2014 earnings for 2010-11 and 2011-12 Title IV graduates. This figure is provided by the U.S. Department of Education. Programs with an identical Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code and credential level may have their earnings aggregated together and a single earnings figure reported.

¹⁰Designation of pass, zone, or fail provided by U.S. Department of Education based on the program's debt-to-earnings ratios.
