

Bachelor's Degree Program TECHNICAL MANAGEMENT

Specialization: Criminal Justice

SPECIALIZATION PREREQUISITE

The Criminal Justice specialization is designed for students with at least one year of professional experience in law enforcement, criminal justice or a closely related field.

ABOUT THIS DEGREE PROGRAM

For those with prior college education or professional experience, the bachelor's degree completion program in Technical Management at DeVry University can help you develop the management skills needed to work in many business areas and industries, such as accounting, project management, entrepreneurship, marketing, and human resources. With previously earned qualifying college credits, you may be able to earn your bachelor's degree in less time.

Our Technical Management degree program is designed to prepare students to meet the challenges of a high-tech, global marketplace by bringing the real world into the classroom. Through experiential projects, you can develop the skills and business acumen needed in today's business world.

If you have prior work or educational experience, you may also want to consider our Management degree program, which is available with many of the same specializations.

DID YOU KNOW?

COLLEGE OF
BUSINESS & MANAGEMENT

ABOUT THIS SPECIALIZATION

DeVry University's bachelor's degree program in Technical Management can help prepare you for the workplace with a solid business management foundation. Our specialization in Criminal Justice can further focus your studies.

Our Criminal Justice specialization can familiarize you with many aspects of criminal justice, such as law enforcement, juvenile justice, theory and practice of corrections, criminology, and criminal law and procedure. In addition, our curriculum can educate you on the study and application of practices and systems designed to uphold the law, promote social control and stability, and deter and reduce crime.

Graduates of DeVry University's Technical Management program with a specialization in Criminal Justice may consider careers including, but not limited to, the following:

- Detention Officer
- Police Detective
- Police Officer
- Private Investigator
- Public Safety Officer

Applicants for jobs in the criminal justice field may be subject to pre-employment screenings such as, but not limited to, criminal background checks, drug and/or alcohol testing, physical and/or psychological examinations and credit checks. Unsatisfactory screening results may disqualify an applicant for a position in the criminal justice field.

Additional government-required training programs or years of relevant experience may be necessary to obtain employment in this field.

⁴ Michigan residents enrolled as online students should note that the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards (MCOLES) requires that any applicant for a certification in law enforcement for the State of Michigan must attend a state-certified MCOLES police academy. DeVry University does not operate such an academy. Students are advised that entry to any MCOLES police academy is restricted by separate admission examinations, and the selection process is highly competitive. Applicants to any MCOLES police academy are expected to meet State of Michigan standards, including no felony convictions, and vision and hearing minimums. Completion of the Criminal Justice specialty does not guarantee admission to any MCOLES police academy.
