

American Pathway for International Scholars

Overview

Beginning in the January 2024 session, international undergraduate and graduate students living abroad and studying online may be eligible to receive a scholarship for 50% off the prevailing tuition rate.

Initial Eligibility

- New and readmit certificate or degree seeking undergraduate and graduate students
- Must be international student studying online from outside the United States
- Readmit students must meet eligibility requirements of 2.5 CGPA for UG and 3.0 CGPA for GR and not be in a dismissed academic status
- Standard Placement in Math and English on DeVry administered placement test or placement equivalency satisfied by transfer credit
- Student must complete the APIS Terms and Conditions document via DocuSign prior to the scholarship application being submitted
- Must satisfy one of the following:
  - Must meet minimum score on one of the following standardized ESL tests:

Test	Undergraduate Required Score	Graduate Required Score
TOEFL – Paper Based	500	550
TOEFL – Computer Based	190	213
TOEFL – Internet Based	61	79
IELTS	6.0	6.0
iTEP	4.0	4.5

- English is identified as the official native language of the country in which the applicants completed all of their secondary education, or postsecondary, advanced or professional degree as designated in the CIA World Fact Book at <https://www.cia.gov/the-world-factbook/>

- The applicants completed their secondary or postsecondary education in a country where English is not the official/ native language; however, English was the principal language of instruction at the institution. Such applicants may submit a letter from the institution's registrar or principal indicating the language of instruction at the institution was English or that the program was taught in English. Also acceptable is a credentials evaluation report from an approved education credentials evaluation agency indicating the language of instruction at the institution was English or that the program was taught in English.

Award Structure

50% of prevailing tuition rate; for example in January 2024:

- 50% of $514 per credit hour for UG students equals a savings of $257 per credit hour
- 50% of $776 per credit hour for GR students equals a savings of $388 per credit hour

Restrictions

- Not combinable with any other DeVry special pricing programs or institutional benefits
- Continuing students are not eligible
- International students studying on a F-1 visa are not eligible
- If recipient does not start within their intended start term, their award will expire, and they will have to reapply for available offerings at time of actual enrollment
- Students must make a session payment in full prior to start of session or may be dropped from course(s)

Continuing Eligibility Criteria

- Undergraduate students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.25
- Graduate students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.00
- Minimum enrollment is one class per session
  - Students may have 2 sessions without enrollment. Upon the 3rd session without enrollment, future awards will be removed
- Remain enrolled in Online-International (ON4) location
  - Students choosing to study at an onsite location within the United States will lose APIS and have awards removed

Questions

DVU colleague questions should be directed to the DVU Student Care Training team at DVUStudentCareTraining@devry.edu